They Receive Much Praise for Their Creditable Evolutions.

MR. PLATT ON THE MINING TROUBLES.

Miss Hattle Blaine Returns from Europe-Mrs. Logan Brings Bad Reports from England-New York News.

NEW YORK BUREAU, RICHMOND TIMES,

Nothing but praises for New York's naval militia reserves were heard aboard the vessels of the White Squadron to.day. The oreditable manner in which it went through the evolutions of last night proves that it is capable of excellent work in the naval service. MR. PLATT ON THE MINING TROUBLES.

Thomas C. Platt, president of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company, said this morning that his company had as yet no trouble at the mines in Tennessee. The company, he said, employed convict labor, but the last advices received in this city stated that no trouble or discontent had arisen. Mr. Platt did not know how long the mines of his company would remain peaceful should a sympathetic feeling for the strikers extend.

THE REPORT A CANARD.

THE REPORT A CANARD.

THE STATEMENT A CANARD.

The statement that Judge A. M. Keiley is to settle down to the practice of the law in this city is pronounced a canard by the members of his family here.

The governors of the Stock Exchange have ordered that the following additional stocks be placed on the regular list: $4,809,000 Louisville and Nashville railroad, $2,000,000 Norfolk and Western preferred.

A BABY INCUBATOR. The Charity Hospital has a baby incubator, and Dr. Mallette says it is a howing success. The child whom the incubator has first raised out of the most incipient stages of babyhood to a possibility of presidential candidacy is the son of Mrs. Eliza Dunn, of No. 187 Mulberry street. It weighed only four and one-half pounds when born, and after a month in the incubator weighs now more than eight the incubator weight now more than eight pounds, with lively indications in every re-spect. The incubator came from Paris. TIDE OF TRAVEL TURNED.

The tide of ocean travel has turned and Americans are beginning to face homeward. The White Star Line steamship Teutonic came into port early to-day with the first batch of the returning tourists. The time of passage was five days, twenty-one hours and fourteen minutes. In all the craft logged 2.821 miles. The trip is within two hours of the best on record, which is five days nine-teen hours and five minutes, also made by the

MISS BLAINE BETURNS.

One of her passengers was Miss Hattie Blaine. On the dock waiting for her was young James Blaine. He had come direct from Bar Harbor for the purpose of meeting "My father is greatly improved in health."

"My father is greatly improved in heaten, he said, "and his physicians say he will have no further trouble."

"I had a delightful time," Miss Blaine said.
"I enjoyed the trip immensely, and saw everything that was possible to see. My return was not occasioned by the reported illness of my father. I should have been here several weeks ago, but rehave been here several weeks ago, but re-mained in London to view the festivities at-tending the visit of the German Emperor. I was in constant communication with home, and was told not to hurry, as father was not in danger." Young Mr. Blaine and his sister took the 12:30 o'clock train for Far Harbor. NOT IMPRESSED WITH ENGLAND.

Other passengers were Mrs. John A. Logan and her son. Mrs. Logan said: "I cannot say that I am greatly impressed with England. This was my first trip abroad, and while we had a splendid time, I was much disappointed in various ways. I never saw as much poverty and depravity in all my life as in Liverpool. London, too, is not entirely free either. There are a great many poor people in America, of course, but the poor of Liverpool are the poorest class I ever saw. Why, I saw innumerable cases of whole families starving."

WANTS HIS MOTHERLESS CHILD. Nelson D. Barnett obtained a writ of habeas corpus vesterday directing Jere J. Moran to produce Violet Black in the Supreme Court chambers on Friday. Barnett says that Violet, who is nine years old, is his daughter by Mary Beck, who for the past three years has been living under Moran's protection. Mary Beck died on Saturday (and was buried yesterday from Moran's home, 313 west Hundred and Seventeenth street.

Barnett in his petition for the writ denies that she and Moran were ever married. He does not claim that she was ever Mrs. Barnett. Mr. Barnett is described as a speculator, with a residence at Keyport. His sister-in-law.
Mrs. M. Barnett, who will care for the child if the court takes her from Moran, keeps a boarding house in Jersey during the summer and in Thirty-fifth street, this city, the rest of

Mr. Moran said last night that for more than three years Mary Beck had been his honored wife. He did not know when he married her that she was the mother of a child, and he believed little Voilet to be her niece. When he learned the truth he adopted the child, and now he ways he loves her the child, and now he ways he loves her the child, and now he ways he loves her the child. niece. When he learned the truth he adopted the child, and now he says he loves her as much as his own little daughter, who is twenty months old. He will bring to the Supreme Court on Friday more than half a dozen witnesses who heard his wife, on her death bed, make him promise never to let Barnett or Mrs. Barnett have control of Violet. The child is fair-haired and bright-looking.

ERHARDT SHARPENS HIS AXE.

Collector Erhardt returned to his desk in the custom house yesterday afternoon. He read Secretary Foster's order, which came read Secretary Foster's order, which came during his absence, requesting the removal of seventy-five men from the custom house and the reduction of expenses to the extent of $85,000 a year. He then sent the following letter to the heads of all the divisions:

I am instructed by the department to reduce the force in your division as follows:

* * Immediately upon the receipt of this you will report to me the names of the employes in your division who can best be spared, and whose compensation can best be reduced in compliance with this order.

In making these recommendations you will be governed by the record of every incumbent as to efficiency, long service, industry and attention to business.

tention to business.

Every head of division furnished its list during the day. The collector will go over these lists carefully and within a few days will decide who will have to go. Secretary Foster has approved the removal of Chief-Clerk Gerritzen and Assistant-Super-intendent Geoghegan, of the public stores. The next changes will probably be the drop-ping of Deputy-Collector Fenner and the transfer of a number of deputies to new di-

AN AMERICAN GIRL TO MARRY WOO.

Charley Woo, a Chinaman, of 4 Mott street, will be united in marriage to Miss Fannie Eustis, an American girl, of 18 Doyers street, Tuesday, July 28. The wedding was to have been held yesterday, but owing to the illness of Miss Eustis' sister, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, and to some other minor difficulties, such as the inability of Mr. Woo to get a cleryweap, the marriage did not take nace ties, such as the inability of Mr. Woo to get a clergymen, the marriage did not take place. Miss Eustis asserts that the Rev. J. W. Selleck, of the Five Points Mission is to marry them, but that gentleman denies any knowledge of the affair. However, the notice has been given out in Mott street that the wedding will take place, and that the proceedings will begin at 13 Doyers street at 8 o'clock next Tuesday ovening with a brilliant display of fireworks. After the bond has been tied a feast will be held at the Chimese temple at 16 Mott street.

HENDRICKS MAY BE CHOSEN.

Now that Senator Fassett has declined to succeed General John N. Knapp as chairman of the Republican State Committee, there is a disposition to select Senator Hendricks, of Syracuse. This Senator was chairman of Syracuse. This Senator was chairman of the Fassett Investigating Committee, sent down to New York a year ago to try and defeat Tammany Hall and Mayor Grant. General Knapp is not well enough to undertake the rigors of the approaching campaign. THE ACCOUNTS SHORT.

Since the dissolution of the partnership of Mescrole & Walker, stone and coal dealers, at the foot of Eagle street, Greenpoint Mr. Mescrole has had an expert accountant at work investigating the accounts as they were kent by Mr. Walker, who was bookkeeper.

It was reported last night that a shortage of $3,000 had been discovered.

When a reporter went to Mr. Walker's house to question him his wife said that he had gone to New Jersey, but would be back to day. She added that if there was any shortage on her husband's part he would settle it. Meserole could not be seen.

With Dr. Depew, ex-Mayor Schroeder and Cornelius N. Bliss out of the race as possible Republican candidates for Governor, the talk yesterday centered on John H. Starin. Mr. Starin belongs on both sides of the Harlem. He has a city home here and a country home in the Mohawk Valley, not far from Palatine bridge. But fears are expressed that the Republican epidemic "No, thank you," may have communicated itself to these gentlemen.

WALL-STREET NOTES.

The activity in grain and provisions would seem to indicate that what little speculative interest there is in the country had drifted away from Wall street into the markets for those products. Certainly there is so little interest shown in Stock Exchange securities that no development whatever seems important enough to affect prices materially. For example, the fact was brought out to-day that the St. Paul company recently borrowed about one and three-quarter millions to complete its interest payments due July 1st. There is nothing remarkable about the operation, for the company makes the bulk of its money in the last half of the calendar year, and has doubtless frequently had to anticipate its profits in this way before. At the same time the publicity given to the fact would ordinarily have been worth something to the bears. WALL-STREET NOTES.

Can't You Catch On

To a known means of overcoming that obstinate disorder, constipation? Of course you can. Then why don't you? Ask those who have can. Then why don't you? Ask those who have tried it, and they will tell that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a matchless laxative, effectual without violence—thoroughly alterative, but perfectly reliable. It invigorates, too, no less than it regulates the system, and it is chiefly to this first quality that it owes the permanency of its regulating effects, since, if vigor is lacking in the region of the bowels, the stomach or the liver, healthful activity in those organs is suspended. Deobstruents and cathartics in general are simply that and nothing more: they relax the bowels merely without invigorating them, and as their laxative action is usually abrupt and violent, they really tend to weaken the organs. Use the Bitters, also, for malaria, rheumatism, indigestion, debility and kidney trouble.
